

Hiroshi Karube

Global Controller, Budget and Accounting Dept., Global Asset Management Dept. for Nissan Motor Co., Ltd.

Hiroshi Karube currently serves as Corporate Vice President and Global Controller for Nissan Motor Co., Ltd., a position he has held since March 2010. As a senior member of Nissan’s finance team, Hiroshi Karube is responsible for budget management and plays a key role in guiding Nissan’s corporate governance initiatives.

Hiroshi Karube has more than 30 years of experience working in corporate governance and risk management. Throughout his career at Nissan, he has held several senior management positions covering different areas of the company, including Finance, Budget and Accounting, M&S Planning, and Investor Relations.

Hiroshi Karube graduated from the Faculty of Economics, Tokyo University in March 1980.

April 2014	Corporate Vice President Global Controller, Budget and Accounting Dept., Global Asset Management Dept.
April 2010	Corporate Vice President Global Controller, Product Economic Control - Cost Dept., Product Economic Control - Profit Dept., Budget and Accounting Dept., Capex Control, Global Control Process Planning Group
April 2009	General Manager, Japan / Asia Business Management Office
April 2006	General Manager, Budget and Accounting Dept., M&S Planning Dept.
July 2002	Senior Manager, Global Communication and Investor Relations
September 2001	Senior Manager, COO Office

September 1999	Manager, COO Office and Treasury Dept.
July 1997	Manager, Finance Dept.
July 1995	Transferred to Nissan Europe N.V.
April 1980	Joined Nissan Motor Co., Ltd.